1. INTRODUCTION

This Manual is designed to acquaint you with ITL, LLC and provide you with information about working conditions, benefits, and policies affecting your employment.

The information contained in this Manual applies to all employees of ITL, LLC. Following the policies described in this Manual is considered a condition of continued employment. However, nothing in this Manual alters an employee's status. The contents of this Manual shall not constitute nor be construed as a promise of employment or as a contract between the Company and any of its employees. The Manual is a summary of our policies, which are presented here only as a matter of information.

You are responsible for reading, understanding, and complying with the provisions of this Manual. Our objective is to provide you with a work environment that is constructive to both personal and professional growth.

1.1 CHANGES IN POLICY

This Manual supersedes all previous employee manuals and memos that may have been issued from time to time on subjects covered in this Manual.

However, since our business and our organization are subject to change, we reserve the right to interpret, change, suspend, cancel, or dispute with or without notice all or any part of our policies, procedures, and benefits at any time. We will notify all employees of these changes. Changes will be effective on the dates determined by the Company, and after those dates all superseded policies will be null.

No individual supervisor or manager has the authority to change policies at any time. If you are uncertain about any policy or procedure, speak with your direct supervisor.

1.2 EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

We rely upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application and the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or data may result in exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

1.3 EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

You enter into employment voluntarily, and you are free to resign at any time for any reason or no reason. Similarly, ITL, LLC is free to conclude its relationship with any employee at any time for any reason or no reason. Following the probationary period, employees are required to follow the Employment Termination Policy (See Section 3.14).

2. DEFINITIONS OF EMPLOYEES STATUS

“EMPLOYEES” DEFINED

An “employee” of ITL, LLC is a person who regularly works for ITL, LLC on a wage or salary basis. “Employees” may include exempt, non-exempt, regular full-time, regular part-time, and temporary persons, and others employed with the Company who are subject to the control and direction of ITL, LLC in the performance of their duties.

2.1 EXEMPT

Employees whose positions meet specific criteria established by the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and who are exempt from overtime pay requirements.

2.2 NON-EXEMPT

Employees whose positions do not meet FLSA criteria and who are paid one and one-half their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

2.3 REGULAR FULL-TIME

Employees who have completed the 90-day probationary period and who are regularly scheduled to work 35 or more hours per week. Generally, they are eligible for the Company’s benefit package, subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefit program.

2.4 REGULAR PART-TIME

Employees who have completed the 90-day probationary period and who are regularly scheduled to work less than or equal to 35 hours per week.

2.5 TEMPORARY (FULL-TIME or PART-TIME)

Those whose performance is being evaluated to determine whether further employment in a specific position or with the Company is appropriate or individuals who are hired as interim replacements to assist in the completion of a specific project or for vacation relief. Employment beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status. Temporary employees retain that status until they are notified of a change. They are not eligible for any of the Company’s benefit programs.

2.6 PROBATIONARY PERIOD FOR NEW EMPLOYEES

A new employee whose performance is being evaluated to determine whether further employment in a specific position or with ITL, LLC is appropriate. When an employee completes the probationary period, the employee will be notified of his/her new status with ITL, LLC.

3. EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

3.1 NON-DISCRIMINATION

In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions at ITL, LLC will be based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. ITL, LLC does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disability.

ITL, LLC will make reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship. This policy governs all aspects of employment, including selection, job assignment, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits and training.

Employees with questions or concerns about discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their supervisor. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

3.2 NON-DISCLOSURE/CONFIDENTIALITY

The protection of confidential business information and trade secrets is vital to the interests and success of ITL, LLC. Such confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

- Schematic Diagrams
- Software Source Code
- Hardware and Software Passwords and Access Keys
- Vendors
- Customers
- Compensation data
- Financial information
- Marketing strategies
- Pending projects and proposals
- Proprietary production processes
- Personnel/Payroll records
- Conversations between any persons associated with the company

All employees are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement as a condition of employment.

Employees who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of employment and legal action, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

3.3 NEW EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION

Orientation is a formal welcoming process that is designed to make the new employee feel comfortable, informed about the company, and prepared for their position. New employee orientation is conducted by a Human Resources representative, and includes an overview of the company history, an explanation of the company core values, vision, and mission; and company goals and objectives. In addition, the new employee will be given a overview of benefits, tax, and legal issues, and complete any necessary paperwork.

Employees are presented with all codes, keys, and procedures needed to navigate within the workplace. The new employee's supervisor then introduces the new hire to staff throughout the company, reviews their job description and scope of position, explains the company's evaluation procedures, and helps the new employee get started on specific functions.

3.4 PROBATIONARY PERIOD FOR NEW EMPLOYEES

The probationary period for regular full-time and regular part-time employees lasts up to 90 days from date of hire. During this time, employees have the opportunity to evaluate our Company as a place to work and management has its first opportunity to evaluate the employee. During this introductory period, both the employee and the Company have the right to terminate employment without advance notice.

Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, a 90-day review will be given and benefits will begin as appropriate. All employees, regardless of classification or length of service, are expected to meet and maintain Company standards for job performance and behavior (See Section 4, Standards of Conduct).

3.5 OFFICE HOURS

ITL, LLC office is open for business from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, except for Holidays (See Section 6.7, Holidays).

The standard workweek is 40 hours of work (see Section 5.2, Overtime). In the computation of various employee benefits, the employee workweek is considered to begin on Sunday

(starting at 12:01 a.m.) through Saturday (ending at 12:00 a.m.), unless a supervisor makes prior other arrangement with the employee.

3.6 LUNCH PERIODS

Employees are allowed a one-hour lunch break. Lunch breaks generally are taken between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. on a staggered schedule so that your absence does not create a problem for co-workers or clients.

3.7 BREAK PERIODS

Subject to variance by your department and supervisor

3.8 PERSONNEL FILES

Employee personnel files include the following: job application, job description, résumé, records of participation in training events, salary history, records of disciplinary action and documents related to employee performance reviews, coaching, and mentoring.

Personnel files are the property of ITL, LLC, and access to the information is restricted. Management personnel of ITL, LLC who have a legitimate reason to review the file are allowed to do so.

Employees who wish to review their own file should contact their supervisor or Human Resources Representative. With reasonable advance notice, the employee may review his/her personnel file in Company's office and in the presence of their supervisor or Human Resources Representative.

3.9 PERSONNEL DATA CHANGES

It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify their supervisor or ITL, LLC's Human Resources Department of any changes in personnel data such as:

- Mailing address,
- Telephone numbers,
- Name and number of dependents, and
- Individuals to be contacted in the event of an emergency.

An employee's personnel data should be accurate and current at all times.

3.10 INCLEMENT WEATHER/EMERGENCY CLOSINGS

At times, emergencies such as severe weather, fires, or power failures can disrupt company operations. The decision to close the office will be made by the Executive Staff.

When the decision is made to close the office, employees will receive official notification from their supervisors.

Time off from scheduled work due to emergency closings will be unpaid for all non-exempt employees. However, if employees would like to be paid, they are permitted to use vacation time if it is available to them.

3.11 EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEW AND PLANNING SESSIONS

Supervisors will conduct performance reviews and planning sessions with all regular full-time and regular part-time employees after six months of service. Supervisors may conduct informal performance reviews and planning sessions more often if they choose.

Performance reviews and planning sessions are designed for the supervisor and the employee to discuss his/her current job tasks, encourage and recognize attributes, and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting work-related goals. Together, employee and supervisor discuss ways in which the employee can accomplish goals or learn new skills. The planning sessions are designed for the employee and his/her supervisor to make and agree on new goals, skills, and areas for improvement.

ITL, LLC directly links wage and salary increases with performance. Your performance review and planning sessions will have a direct effect on any changes in your compensation. For this reason among others, it is important to prepare for these reviews carefully, and participate in them fully.

New employees will be reviewed at the end of their probationary periods (see Section 3.3, Probationary Period for New Employees). After the initial review, the employee will be reviewed according to the regular semi-annual schedule.

3.12 OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees may hold outside jobs in non-related businesses or professions as long as the employee meets the performance standards of their job description with ITL, LLC. Unless an alternative work schedule has been approved by ITL, LLC, employees will be subject to the company's scheduling demands, regardless of any existing outside work assignments.

ITL, LLC's office space, equipment, and materials are not to be used for outside employment.

3.13 CORRECTIVE ACTION

ITL, LLC holds each of its employees to certain work rules and standards of conduct (see Section 4). When an employee deviates from these rules and standards, ITL, LLC expects the employee's supervisor to take corrective action.

Corrective action at ITL, LLC is progressive. That is, the action taken in response to a rule infraction or violation of standards typically follows a pattern increasing in seriousness until the infraction or violation is corrected.

The usual sequence of corrective actions includes an oral warning, a written warning, probation, and finally termination of employment. In deciding which initial corrective action would be appropriate, a supervisor will consider the seriousness of the infraction, the circumstances surrounding the matter, and the employee's previous record.

Though committed to a progressive approach to corrective action, ITL, LLC considers certain rule infractions and violations of standards as grounds for immediate termination of employment. These include but are not limited to: theft in any form, insubordinate behavior, vandalism or destruction of company property, being on company property during non-business hours, the use of company equipment and/or company vehicles without prior authorization by Executive Staff, untruthfulness about personal work history, skills, or training, divulging Company business practices, and misrepresentations of ITL, LLC to a customer, a prospective customer, the general public, or an employee.

3.14 EMPLOYMENT TERMINATION

Termination of employment is an inevitable part of personnel activity within any organization, and many of the reasons for termination are routine. Below are a few examples of some of the most common circumstances under which employment is terminated:

- Resignation – voluntary employment termination initiated by an employee.
- Termination – involuntary employment termination initiated by ITL, LLC.
- Layoff – involuntary employment termination initiated by ITL, LLC for non-disciplinary reasons.

When a non-exempt employee intends to terminate his/her employment with ITL, LLC, he/she shall give ITL, LLC at least two (2) weeks written notice. Exempt employees shall give at least four (4) weeks written notice.

Since employment with ITL, LLC is based on mutual consent, both the employee and ITL, LLC have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause during the Introductory/Probationary Period for New Employees (See Section 3.3, Introductory/Probationary Period for New Employees).

Any employee who terminates employment with ITL, LLC shall return all files, records, keys, and any other materials that are property of ITL, LLC. No final settlement of an employee's pay will be made until all items are returned in appropriate condition. The cost of replacing non-returned items will be deducted from the employee's final paycheck. Furthermore, any outstanding financial obligations owed to ITL, LLC will also be deducted from the employee's final check.

Employee's benefits will be affected by employment termination in the following manner. All accrued vested benefits that are due and payable at termination will be paid. Some benefits may be continued at the employee's expense (See Section 5, Benefits) if the employee elects to do so. The employee will be notified of the benefits that may be continued and of the terms, conditions, and limitations.

3.15 SAFETY

ITL, LLC provides information to employees about workplace safety and health issues through regular internal communication such as:

- Training sessions
- Bulletin board postings
- Memorandums
- Other written communications

Each employee is expected to obey safety rules and exercise caution and common sense in all work activities. Employees must immediately report any unsafe conditions to their supervisor. Employees who violate safety standards, cause hazardous or dangerous situations, or fail to report, or where appropriate, remedy such situations, may be subject to disciplinary action including termination of employment.

- No uncorrectable vision problems that would impair the safe operation of the forklifts
- No uncorrectable hearing loss that would impair the safe operation of the forklifts

- No neurological disorders that affect balance or consciousness
- No use of medication that affects perception, vision or balance

Operator training occurs before an employee is permitted to operate any forklift or other powered material handling equipment in our facility. All operational training will be conducted under close supervision. Training will consist of a combination of formal instruction (e.g., lecture, discussion, DVD), practical training (demonstrations performed by the trainer and exercises performed by the trainee), and an evaluation of the operator's performance in the workplace.

3.16 HEALTH-RELATED ISSUES

Employees, who become aware of any health-related issue, including pregnancy, should notify their supervisor and Human Resources Representative of health status. This policy has been instituted strictly to protect the employee.

A written “permission to work” from the employee’s doctor is required at the time or shortly after notice has been given. The doctor’s note should specify whether the employee is able to perform regular duties as outlined in his/her job description.

A leave of absence may be granted on a case-by-case basis. If the need arises for a leave of absence, employees should notify their supervisor and Human Resources Representative.

3.17 EMPLOYEE REQUIRING MEDICAL ATTENTION

In the event an employee requires medical attention, whether injured or becoming ill while at work, the employee’s personal physician must be notified immediately. If it is necessary for the employee to be seen by the doctor or go to the hospital, a family member will be called to transport the employee to the appropriate facility. If an emergency arises requiring Emergency Medical Services to evaluate the injury/illness of an employee on-site, the employee will be responsible for any transportation charges. Furthermore, ITL, LLC’s employees will not be responsible for transportation of another employee due to liabilities that may occur.

A physician’s “return to work” notice may be required.

3.18 BUILDING SECURITY

All employees who are issued keys to the office are responsible for their safekeeping. These employees will sign a Building Key Disbursement form upon receiving the key. The last employee, or a designated employee, who leaves the office at the end of the business day assumes the responsibility to ensure that all doors are securely locked, the alarm system is armed, thermostats are set on appropriate evening and/or weekend setting, and all appliances and lights are turned off with exception of the lights normally left on for security purposes. Employees are not allowed on Company property after hours without prior authorization from the Executive Staff.

Expenses incurred by an employee must have prior approval by a supervisor. Reimbursements under $25.00 will be included in the employee's next regular paycheck. An example of such an expense would include mileage. If the amount is more than $25.00, the reimbursement request will be processed like an invoice. All completed reimbursement request forms should be turned in to Accounts Payable/Payroll Department.

Employees must park their cars in areas indicated and provided by the Company.

3.23 VISITORS IN THE WORKPLACE

To provide for the safety and security of employees, visitors, and the facilities at ITL, LLC, only authorized visitors are allowed in the workplace. Restricting unauthorized visitors helps ensure security, decreases insurance liability, protects confidential information, safeguards employee welfare, and avoids potential distractions and disturbances.

All visitors must enter through the main reception area, sign-in, and sign-out at the front desk and receive a 'Visitor' badge to wear while on premises. Authorized visitors will be escorted to their destination and must be accompanied by an employee at all times.

3.24 IMMIGRATION LAW COMPLIANCE

Former employees who are rehired must also complete the form if they have not completed an I-9 with ITL, LLC within the past three years or if their previous I-9 is no longer retained or valid.

3.25 Cell Phone Policy

This policy about cellular phone usage applies to any device that makes or receives phone calls, leaves messages, sends text messages, surfs the internet, or downloads and allows for the reading of and responding to email. This policy applies to all Company employees including full or part time.

1. Employees should make personal cell phone calls during scheduled break or lunch times in non-working areas to the maximum extent possible. While in work areas, cell phones must be stored away.
2. Frequent or lengthy phone calls are not acceptable as they may adversely affect the employee's productivity and disturb others.
3. Employees are encouraged to use common sense when making or receiving personal cell phone calls at work. For example, employees should speak quietly and reserve personal or intimate details for non-work hours.
4. Personal cell phone use on ITL, LLC property, even when permitted, must never include language that is obscene, discriminatory, offensive, prejudicial or defamatory in any way (such as jokes, slurs and/or inappropriate remarks regarding a person's race, ethnicity, sex, sexual orientation, religion, color, age or disability)
5. Employees should turn off ringers or change ringers to "mute" or "vibrate" during training, conferences and the like; when meeting with clients or serving customers; and if an employee shares a workspace with others.
6. The use of cameras, video and audio recording on cell phones during work time is prohibited to protect the privacy of the employer as well as of fellow employees.
7. Use of headphones or earphones connected to cell phones, including via blue tooth, is not permitted in any work areas. Playing of music on cell phones in common work areas is prohibited.
8. Playing games on the cell phone during working hours is prohibited unless on a scheduled break or lunch in a non-working area.
9. To ensure the effectiveness of meetings, employees are asked to leave cell phones at their desk. Or, on the unusual occasion of an emergency or anticipated emergency that requires immediate attention, the cell phone may be carried to the meeting on vibrate mode.

Employees who violate this policy will be subject to disciplinary actions, up to and including employment termination.

Note that company issues cell phones used to receive and initiated calls to customer and/or vendors are exempt from some of the policies.

4. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The work rules and standards of conduct for ITL, LLC are important, and the Company regards them seriously. All employees are urged to become familiar with these rules and standards. In addition, employees are expected to follow the rules and standards faithfully in doing their own jobs and conducting the Company's business. Please note that any employee who deviates from these rules and standards will be subject to corrective action, up to and including termination of employment (see Section 3.13, Corrective Action).

4.2 ABSENCE WITHOUT NOTICE

When you are unable to work owing to illness or an accident, please notify your supervisor. This will allow the Company to arrange for temporary coverage of your duties, and helps other employees to continue work in your absence. If you do not report for work and the Company is not notified of your status, it will be assumed after two consecutive days of absence that you have resigned, and you will be removed from the payroll.

If you become ill while at work or must leave the office for some other reason before the end of the workday, be sure to inform your supervisor of the situation and check out with the receptionist.

5. WAGE AND SALARY POLICIES

5.1 WAGE OR SALARY INCREASES

Each employee's hourly wage or annual salary will be reviewed at least once each year. The employee's review date will usually be conducted on or about the anniversary date of employment or the date of the previous compensation review. Such reviews may be conducted more frequently for a newly created position, or based on a recent promotion.

Increases will be determined on the basis of performance, adherence to company policies and procedures, and ability to meet or exceed duties per job description and achieve performance goals (See Section 3.11, Performance Review/Planning Sessions).

Although the Company's salary ranges and hourly wage schedules will be adjusted on an ongoing basis, ITL, LLC does not grant "cost of living" increases. Performance is the key to wage increases in the Company.

5.2 OVERTIME

ITL, LLC is open for business 40 hours per week. Overtime compensation is paid to non-exempt employees in accordance with federal and state wage and hour restrictions. Overtime is payable for all hours worked over 40 per week at a rate of one and one-half times the non-exempt employee's regular hourly rate. Time off on personal time, holidays, or any leave of absence will not be considered hours worked when calculating overtime. In addition, vacation time does not constitute hours worked.

All overtime work performed by an hourly employee must receive the supervisor's prior authorization. Overtime worked without prior authorization from the supervisor may result in disciplinary action. The supervisor's signature on a timesheet authorizes pay for overtime hours worked.

5.3 PAYDAYS

All employees are paid bi-weekly. In the event that a regularly scheduled payday falls on a weekend or holiday, employees will receive pay on the next day of operation.

If a regular payday falls during an employee's vacation, the employee's paycheck will be available upon his/her return from vacation.

If the employee is not at work when paychecks are distributed and does not receive the paycheck, the paycheck will be kept at the reception desk through the rest of the payday. If an employee is unable to pick up his or her check on payday, he or she will need to see the company Controller/Human Resources Representative.

Paychecks will not, under any circumstances, be given to any person other than the employee without written authorization. Paychecks may also be mailed to the employee's address or deposited directly into an employee's bank account upon request.
